

PRESS RELEASE

Jack the aspiring Nicklaus

(Redbourn Golf Club, Hertfordshire – May 1) Three-year-old Jack Bigham has a promising future in golf after an impressive display in Redbourn Golf Club's latest adult/junior competition.

The young-star plotted his way around the club's challenging par-3 course with Redbourn's Assistant PGA Professionals Chris Forsyth, and the pair finished second in the net competition with a six-under-par 21.

Thirty-four pairs entered with plenty of prizes up for grabs. Twelve-year-old Jack Turner and partner Noel Quinn won the best overall score with a four-over-par 31, while Daren Taylor and Ben Read-Taylor claimed the best handicap score with a seven-under-par 20.

Tristan Hall, general manager of Redbourn Golf Club, said: "It was a great occasion and to have 68 people playing in the competition was amazing. At Redbourn we encourage people of all ages to enjoy golf, and it's great to see adults and youngsters enjoying the sport together."

ENDS

Media Enquiries

For additional information please contact Gary Firkins at Landmark Media, on tel: 01780 752790, or email gary@landmark-media.com